

DECLARATION OF CONFORMITY

The company GEL

Declares that the filters of the line

DEPURA

are in compliance with the following Directives, Laws and Regulations:

Directive concerning the quality of waters for human use:

- 1998/83/EEC dated 03/11/1998 assimilated in Italy with E.O. no. 31/01 and E.O. no. 27/02

Regulations on materials and articles which may be used in fixed capitation systems, feeding and distribution treatment of water for human consumption:

- Ministry of Health Order no. 174 dated 06/04/2004

UNI EN 13443 -1 Water conditioning equipment inside buildings.

- Mechanical filters, Particle rating 80µm to 150µm - Requirements for performance, safety and testing

UNI EN 13443 -2 Water conditioning equipment inside buildings.

- Mechanical filters, Particle rating 1µm to 80µm - Requirements for performance, safety and testing.

Directives on Packaging and packaging Waste:

- 2013/02/UE dated 07/02/2013
- 2005/20/CE dated 09/03/2005 assimilated in Italy with E.O. no. 152/06
- 2004/12/CE dated 18/02/2004 assimilated in Italy with E.O. no. 152/06
- 1994/62/CE dated 20/12/1994 assimilated in Italy with E.O. no. 152/06

Castelfidardo, 01/03/18
General Manager

Note:

In accordance with the law No.37 dated January 22, 2008, the installing company has to issue to the buyer a Declaration of Conformity concerning the produced systems in compliance with the article No. 6. For this purpose, GEL supplies this document to be attached to the Declaration of Conformity.